CATHEDRAL CLASSICS

THE ALTAR SERVER

The Altar Server is a person who assists the priest at holy mass. The duties of the altar server are to light the altar candles (depicted in this Server Cross), to carry candles and lead the procession, to prepare the wine, bread, and water for mass, especially in responding to prayers of the mass.

The role of the altar server is marked by sacrifice and service. They are willing to sacrifice their time and convenience by fulfilling their scheduled assignments with fidelity, punctuality, and devotion. Even when inconvenient, the altar server responds to their required duties.

This Altar Server's Cross should be worn outside the server's surplice or alb during the mass. At other times, the cross should be worn over or under clothing to remind the altar server of his special place in the life of the church.

THE EXTRAORDINARY MINISTER

The Extraordinary Minister of the Holy Communion is a person chosen to help the priest distribute the body of Christ at holy mass. Deeply convinced of the real presence of Jesus Christ in the bread and wine, these ministers convey their appreciation of this great gift to each believer who comes forward to receive the body of Christ.

Extraordinary Ministers have a deep love for the mass and a great devotion to the blessed sacrament. Most ministers attend mass and receive the body of Christ daily. They are generous people who can care for each communicant just as Jesus Christ himself cares for them.

This "Minister's Cross" depicting the body and blood of Christ in the form of bread and wine should be worn outside the clothing while the
